Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to His abundant mercy has begotten us again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.

To My Faithful Supporters and Dear Friends,

I want to start off by wishing each and every one of you a blessed Resurrection Easter. Without the resurrection where would our hope be? I am sure you all know the answer to that question. I celebrate 24 years this Easter being born again and am ever so grateful for our Risen Savior's unmerited gift. The gift of salvation by grace through faith Eph.2:8-9

From all of us here at Lighthouse Educational Ministries, I just want to take a moment and express my appreciation for all of your encouragement and financial support throughout the years.

Not only did our Heavenly Father see fit to save a wretch like me He also was gracious to deliver me from a 20+ year substance addiction problem and a very wicked evil lifestyle.

I have been working on my autobiography these past 2 years and am now over half way through with the rough draft. I desperately need your prayers and financial support to finish and publish it.

"Assuredly, I say to you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or father or mother or wife or children or lands, for my sake and the gospel's, who shall not receive a hundredfold now in this time—houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and lands, with persecutions—and in the age to come, eternal life."* Mark 10:29-30 NKJV

*I have been asked for the last several years why I did what I did and do what I do. It seems that God has a special love and concern for the salvation of those who need Him the most. Criminal behavior is not very lovable. Therefore, it takes a special kind of love to have compassion on those who have caused so much suffering. God's Word is very clear when He tells us to visit the prisoners in Hebrews 13:3 NKJV. "Remember the prisoners, as if chained with them, and those who are mistreated, since you yourselves are in the body also."

We see ourselves as mere links in God's Holy chain. For it has been our experience that the Lord uses various people from different walks of life, to achieve His objectives. See my testimony on our improved website.

We believe that Jesus made it clear when told us in the Scripture "for I was hungry and you gave me food; I was thirsty and you gave Me drink; I was a stranger and you took Me in; I was naked and you clothed Me; I was sick and you visited Me; I was in prison and you came to Me." Matthew 25:35-36 NKJV

As the founding member, and having been incarcerated over 23 years ago myself, as well as with my personal experience on both sides of the bars I believe we understand and know how and what works to help those still locked up and those being released.

Lighthouse Educational Ministries is a non-profit 501(c) 3 self-supporting, non-denominational ministry that wants to see love, grace, forgiveness and acceptance of Jesus Christ shown to men and women in prison, so they can become productive citizens once again.

All of our literature is distributed to prisoners for free. We are a faith-based ministry and believe that the less fortunate deserve a second chance. Just like the rest of us. Amen....

Please prayerfully consider how you can help us help those who have no means to help us do what we do. Without your support this ministry cannot continue to do what we have done for almost 21 years. We only desire to do in this ministry what our Lord mandates us to do. Matthew 25:35-36 NKJV

Our vision is to get the message of the Gospel to as many prisoners as possible, for the time is short and the days are evil. And wow, are the days ever becoming increasingly evil...

Change comes through the Lord Jesus Christ. Many prisoners are bound in addiction whether it is drugs, alcohol, or some other form of addiction-lifestyle. The only answer is Jesus Christ!!

Please visit our website for testimonies of a few of the changed lives our ministry has touched.

If you have any questions about donations/contributions - please call. If you know a church, business, or Bible study that would be interested in hearing about prison ministries, please let me know.

"Give and it shall be given to you: good measure, pressed down, shaken together, and running over will be put into your bosom. For with the same measure that you use, it will be measured back to you."* Luke 6:38 NKJV

Please continue to keep me and this ministry in your fervent prayers.... Your support is crucial to this ministry, which is very close to our Father's heart. Hebrews 13:3

"The flow of ministry is complete when God's heart touches our hearts and our hearts touch the hearts of others."* Don Lessin

Entrusted with the Gospel

Imagine standing by a pool, watching your children get ready to swim. The youngest asks you to hold something—a dirty plastic pail. The oldest makes a similar request and then hands you an heirloom opal necklace that had been her grandmother's. Most likely, you wouldn't worry too much about protecting the toy, but you would guard the jewelry with great care. The way we handle a possession reveals the value we attach to it.

We see this principle in Jesus' parable about the master who before going away, entrusted his workers with various sums of money. The two who invested theirs were later commended for wise use of the funds. Their efforts showed that they valued both the treasure and their master. A third worker, however, simply buried his portion in the ground and all he "earned" was a harsh rebuke and loss of what little treasure he had.

Like these men, we are responsible for something of great worth—far greater, in fact, than money. God has placed in our keeping the most powerful and precious message in existence, the gospel of Jesus Christ. And we are accountable for what we do with it. Our "investment" involves both how we apply its truth to our own life and whether we share it with others.

Early Light

Do you feed on God's Word daily, and are we obeying all that it says? He has commanded us to share His life saving message with a hurting and needy world—and to make disciples in every part of the globe. Whether we listen and obey reveals how much we value the gospel.

"Let not your heart be troubled; you believe in God, Believe also in Me. John 14:1 NKJV Jesus said to him, "I am the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except through Me. John 14:6 NKJV

Hebrews 12:2 NKJV

...let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, ² looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith, who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.
